Discover Spain

Every moment of this journey is designed to foster language learning, cultural exchange, sustainability awareness, and community engagement. White-washed villages, bustling markets, and familyrun farms become spaces for real-world learning, where conversations flow naturally, and traditions are shared firsthand.

In the heart of the Andalusian countryside, language and culture come to life beyond the classroom.

Education here is immersive and experiential. Hike through scenic landscapes where history and legend intertwine, take part in hands-on workshops that preserve time-honored crafts, and connect with local students in meaningful language exchanges.

Day 1

First contact with Seville's culture. Seville

After checking into our hotel, our journey begins with a guided walk through Seville's historic city center. Students will have some free time to eat lunch. Afternoon visit of the Seville Cathedral, the largest Gothic cathedral in the world and burial site of Christopher Columbus. Climb to the top of the impressive Giralda tower for breathtaking 360-degree views of the entire city. Return to ourhotel to rest. Nighttime group dinner in a local restaurant. Return to our hotel.

Day 2

Cultural contact with Sevillian locals. Seville

Breakfast at our hotel. Visit of the Royal Palace, the oldest European Royal Palace still in use today! Continue on to the Plaza de Espana located in the Maria Luisa Park. Designed by a great Sevillian architect, this emblematic space showcases a mixe-duse plaza-palace that is unique in the world and has served as the backdrop for several Hollywood films. Students will have some free time to eat lunch.

Return to our hotel to rest. Nighttime attendance of a professional flamenco show, followed by a Spanish cooking workshop with local chefs that will serve as our dinner. Return to our hotel.

Day 3

Connect with the local rural community. Seville - Cortegana

Leaving Seville behind, participants travel to Huelva's Sierra de Aracena, arriving in Cortegana for lunch in a locally owned restaurant, supporting sustainable rural tourism. In the afternoon, a guided tour through Cortegana's historic streets encourages interaction with the local community, promoting language practice in an authentic setting. A stop at the Casino, a traditional gathering space, introduces participants to cultural activities that strengthen social bonds. The evening is spent in a familyrun eco-friendly hotel, where sustainability and accessibility are part of the experience. Dinner at our hotel.

Day 4

Connect. Compare. Explore sustainability.
Cortegana

The day begins at CEIP Divino Salvador, a local primary school where participants engage in a language and cultural exchange, reinforcing the role of education in fostering inclusive/diverse communities. Afternoon walk along the Chanza River, where students learn about local biodiversity and the importance of conserving natural water sources. The experience emphasizes the connection between education, sustainable development, and environmental stewardship. Meals at our hotel.

Day 5

Connect with a local women's association.
Cortegana

In the morning, participants visit IES San José, a local high school known for its radio and library programs, which provide an innovative approach to communication and learning. This activity highlights the transformative power of education in community development. After lunch, the afternoon focuses on sustainability through a natural cosmetics workshop, where participants create eco-friendly skincare products at a local women's association, reinforcing the importance of traditional knowledge and responsible consumption. Meals at our hotel.

Day 6

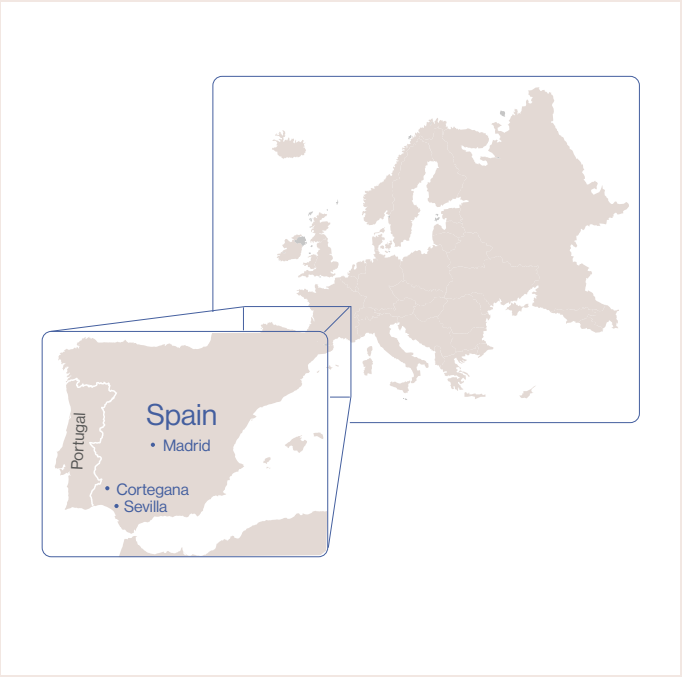

Ecotourism and sustainability.
Cortegana

The morning is dedicated to a heritage experience with Vestigia Patrimonio y Turismo, where history comes alive through interactive storytelling about the region's cultural legacy. In the afternoon, a hike along the Chanza River leads to a local farm, where participants take part in a candle-making workshop and enjoy tasting homemade desserts made from locally sourced ingredients. This hands-on experience highlights sustainable agricultural practices and their role in rural economies. Meals at our hotel.

Day 7

Geological conservation and new towns.
Cortegana - Aracena - Cortegana

The program culminates with a visit to La Gruta de las Maravillas, Spain's first tourist cave and one of its most stunning underground landscapes. Participants explore its intricate formations and underground lakes while learning about geological conservation. Have lunch in the beautiful village of Aracena. The afternoon is left open for free time exploring Aracena, allowing for reflection and relaxation before concluding the journey. Return to our hotel in Cortegana. Breakfast and dinner at our hotel. Time to rest and pack before our departure tomorrow.

Extend your trip!

Day 7
Geological conservation and new towns.
Cortegana - El Rocío

The day begins with a visit to La Gruta de las Maravillas, Spain's first tourist cave and one of its most breathtaking underground landscapes. Participants explore its intricate formations and underground lakes while learning about geological conservation. Have lunch in the beautiful village of Aracena. In the afternoon, the journey continues to Doñana National Park, arriving at the Aldea del Rocío, a unique village famous for its white sandy streets and for being a religious sanctuary for pilgrims since the 17th century. A guided walk through the village reveals the close connection between human life and the surrounding ecosystems. The day concludes with dinner at the casa rociera, a traditional guesthouse offering a glimpse into Andalusian hospitality.

Day 8
Be immersed in Doñana's natural beauty. El Rocío

After breakfast, the morning features an unforgettable 4x4 expedition through Doñana National Park, one of Europe's most significant protected areas. This four-hour guided tour offers a journey through the park's diverse ecosystems, from vast marshlands to ancient forests and shifting sand dunes. These mobile dunes, unique in Spain, demonstrate the delicate balance between geological forces and biodiversity. Participants gain insight into conservation efforts that protect Doñana's fragile habitats and its diverse wildlife, including migratory birds and the endangered Iberian lynx. After lunch at the casa rociera, the afternoon continues with a horse-drawn carriage ride around the village of El Rocío, a traditional experience that connects participants to the cultural heritage of the region. The day ends with dinner at the casa.

Day 9
A farewell to Andalusia
El Rocío

Begin with breakfast and a hike along a path through Doñana's forests, offering insights into conservation. After lunch at our casa rociera, the afternoon is for relaxing at the beach. The program concludes with a flamenco night, where a rhythm and compás workshop immerses participants in Andalusia's vibrant traditions. A final dinner at our casa rociera marks the end of this unforgettable journey, celebrating the deep connection between language, culture, and nature. Time to rest and pack before our departure tomorrow.
